LEWIS GOES SWIMMING.

Lewis Deane took Bertha Oppenheim for a sail in his catboat on Long Island Sound. Both are 15; years old. They took some lunch and planned to stay till dark. An hour before dark the wind dropped. They hailed several motor boats, hoping for a tow, but were not heard. They were afraid Bertha's mother might be worried. So Lewis took the towline and swam nearly four miles to Execution Light. There were people on shore but they seemed not to understand English and he got nowhere with them So he swam four miles more, landing on the sea wall of the Hearst estate at Sands Point. A guard tried to send him away. He asked if he had pants on. "No!" said Lewis, tired and disgusted, preparing to start again. Observing that the lad wore bathing trunks, and perhaps suddenly observing his face, the guard let him stay and took him to a telephone.

When the youngsters finally foregathered with Bertha's family about midnight, her father took them to his yacht club and ordered a big beefsteak dinner, so all ended happily.

Lewis's feat gains from the fact that he had been a frail child who had built himself up into strength. The story as a whole gains most from the fact that at no time were the boy and girl afraid of water or weather. They had given their word to be back at dark. In keeping this the District's organic act of 1873. word and trying not to give anxiety Lewis swam his eight miles, with Bertha holding the tiller on a straight course to save his strength and helping him in and out of the boat when he needed a brief rest. Many a fine 15-year-old performs feats of bravery and toll for the sake of duty and courtesy. Grownups just happened to hear of this

NOBLE HUMANITY

Quoted from the Cleveland Plain Dealer the morning after Douglas Davis crashed:

A fighting, clawing, holiday-bent crowd of 3,500 persons yesterday milled around a five-acre patch of bramble and briar where the broken body of Davis lay, seeking souvenirs.

Throwing a cordon around the reck. 40 policemen, national wreck, 40 policemen, national guardsmen and civilians attempted to keep the crowd back, but it was no use. A score of men and women wormed their way underneath the circle of clasped hands and snatched bits of metal and fabric. STRESS AND STRAIN.

In these days when so many mid-aching teeth, hasn't "many" sore throats, is just a little "constipated" he never thinks of himself as being in anything but the best of health. whereas his efficiency may be as low as 80 to 85 per cent.

Physicians engaged in life insurance or periodic health examinations teil us that about 1 in every 3 examined have infection of teeth or gums and a fair percentage have infection in other parts-nose, gall bladder, intestine.

Naturally the body in order to fight these infections must increase the heart rate, manufacturing more white corpuscles (the disease fighters), and raise the blood pressure. You can thus see that while there may be a "strain" on the system because of financial or domestic worries, there is a definite strain on the body in fighting these low infections, day in and day out, and perhaps year in and year out. The thought then is that everybody should see their doctor once a year and their dentist twice a year and make sure that no infection is undermining the system. Stress and strain can lower the vitality, but if you have no underlying infection interfering with your fighting forces, you have a better chance of withstanding stress and strain.

Palm Trees in Jerusalem

It is not believed that palm trees grew in Jerusalem at the time of Christ, They were very unusual in the upper hills, and probably there were none in the city. Jericho was the city of paim trees in the low region along the Jordan river.

PRETENDING

DEAR BOYS AND GIRLS:

Pretending is a good game if you play it right. By that I mean play honestly by carrying out the idea in your conduct. You pretend to be brave and bright and strong. Fine. But just saying so, just telling the world how fine you are, doesn't get you anywhere. You must pretend in earnest. You must pretend that you are somebody big and brave and bright and strong and behave like him. Pick out a hero and play him all day, all week, as long as I know a boy who used to do that. One whole month he was Abraham Liucoln. He studied hard, got fine marks, wrote good compositions, and went around looking tall and thoughtful, stroking his chin where his whiskers ought to be. He enjoyed being Lincoln and it did him a world of good.

There was a girl one time who used to be famous women in history. Not at the same time, of course. One at a time. She was Queen Elizabeth, Cleopatra, Florence Nighingale, Susan B. Anthony, many others, in turn, according to the place and the time and her mood. By pretending to be fine, earnest and strong, a leader of a great cause, she caught something of the spirit of these great women. It did her good in every way.

There is the cheap kind of pretending that does no good and favites trouble. If you pretend that you have gifts that you know you have not: if you say you can dance when you cannot; if you say you are the best scientist in the school and you are nothing of the sort; if you deny your father and mother, your race or your creed or your country, you are out. That kind of pretending does not lift you up. It weighs you down. Pretend to be noble and keep at it long enough and you will feel nobility growing in your soul. That's the right kind of pretending.

Suppose you are going for grammat lesson or algebra lesson. You hate it. Your feet drag like lead weights. Play you like grammar or algebra; that you love the teacher. Pretend hard. Suppose you find company in the house, the persons you like least of all among the family friends. Pretend hard that you like them. Smile at them. Say something cheerful. Pretend hard. Suppose you feel afraid. Don't give in to it but pretend that you feel like a lion. Keep pretending until you feel courage rising in your heart.

This pretending can help you a lot of you know how to see it. If you have a had fault, pretend you are cured. If you have been telling lies, pretend you are truthful and live it out all day. If you have been rude and ill-mannered, pretend that you are the Prince of Wales, President Represent, Mrs. Emily Post. Once a very wise man said. "Assume a virtue if you have it not said it shall become thine own." That's the right way to use this pretend game. Pretend you are good, keep pretending it until it catches hold. It is easier than you think.

Yours, A. P.

AMERICAN MARCHES FURT AHEAD" WITH A NEW PRINCIPLE * IN REFI

TAST year the American Oil Company, as a result of its _ merger with the Pan American Petroleum and Transport Company and the Mexican Petroleum Corporation, extended its already large operations to the greater territory from Maine to Florida and inland. AMERICAN MARCHED AHEAD!

Just recently the American Oil Company completed its new refinery at Texas City, Texas. It is the world's newest, biggest and most modern refining unit. And with this new refinery was born a new principle in refining which converts more of the undeveloped energy of the raw crudes into finished gasoline than ever before was possible. AMERICAN MARCHES FUR-THER AHEAD!

Out of this great modern refinery comes "New-Action" Orange AMERICAN GAS--the amazing new regular gasoling that is unlike anything ever before produced. For no existing refinery equipment could produce it! It is better in every way a gasoline can be better--in anti-knock--in surer power--in easier riding--more miles--readier acceleration and in lower cost.

In short--"New-Action" Orange AMERICAN GAS is new in every sense of the words "New-Action". And "New-Action" American is all you have to tell our dealers and station attendants from Maine to Florida to get it -- and at regular gas price!

Dear Miss Del Rio:

Our aim, when we created Old Golds, was simply to produce a smoother eigarette than America had ever known before . . .

A cigarette that would appeal to everyone by reason of its mellow mildness-its freedom from rasp and bite.

The tobaccos used in Old Gold are free from artificial flavoring and other seasonings. Hence the throatease . . . without any irritation even for the most sensitive throat.

> Sincerely, P. LORILLARD COMPANY, INC. ESTABLISHED 1700

P. S.—Another outstanding reason is this, Miss Del Rio: - No better tobacco grows than is used in Old Gold. And it's pure. That's why Old Golds are easy on the THROAT and

ACROSS THE WORLD OR NEXT DOOR ...

News items in the Daily Freeman give facts, not opinions. They are meaty but concise. They are written with an eye to buman interest. But they are seldom deliberately sensational—if we slip occasionally it is because reporters are human.

People like to read about people and so we write about people. There is an astonishing amount of news in The Freeman about the doings of folks you know. Full wire service brings you the events of all the world-Not a boiled-down rehash, but the whole story, clear and complete.

A visit to our editorial rooms won't show you the smoky, noisy "city desk" of the movies. But it will acquaint you with the headquarters of a smooth-working, efficient news-gathering organization.

YANKS 5-WHITESOX O

When realities get a bit tiresome or terrifying there's always. The freeman Sports Page to turn to. Did the home-town warriors trim 'em again? What's So-and-So's average? What about this new horse felks are talking about? What is State going to do this fall? When ere the Sox coming out of the cellar? The Daily Freeman gives you all the answers with plenty of pictures to make matters clear. The tionies are written by real aces who know your sports heroes and their foibles and can write about them entertainingly.

INDOOR SPORTS, TOO!

freeman sports aren't all for the fans who haunt the bleachers. ing-side and paddock. Parlor pastimes have their innings, too.

THE FREEMAN DELIVERED OUT OF TOWN VACATIONISTS

Ever gone away for a week or a month? How your eye grabs for a home-town dateline! But Freeman readers need not depend on stray information for news of things back home. The Daily Freeman can put on its traveling clothes, too! Many copies joined readers on their summer outings last week. They didn't have to skip a single episode in the comic strips.

IF YOU'RE GOING ON VACATION Just call 2200 and leave us your forwarding address. You won't miss a single issue.

FAMILY FEUD

Sorry, Mr. Brickley! We shall either have to quit printing the comics on the other side of the imancial news or you will have to go out and buy another Freeman for Junior. Better take your copy with you when you do because the Mrs. is sitting with eagle-eye, just waiting to grab the paper herself. Comes of being a friend of all the family . . . you sometimes make them enemies!

SOMETHING NEW? OF COURSE...

IS IT SIZE? IS IT CIRCULATION?

IS IT NEWS? IS IT ADVERTISING?

WE THINK IT IS SERVICE

AYBE you picked up your Daily Freeman today just to find out all about the big ball game. Maybe you are you're a seasoned "editorial pager" . . . or one of the thousands who can't wait to find out what "Barbara" is doing . . . or maybe you side-track everything else in favor of the ads—and you'd be surprised how many one of those who dive through five or six pages to learn how to bake a deep dish cherry pie. Perhaps

We don't know what part of the Daily Freeman gets your first choice. But you can feel sure-and if you are

The Daily Freman is vitally concerned in serving you and your desires—and will be as long as you live in an old Freeman reader you'll know without our telling you-that the part of the paper you like best is planned,

Mrs. Crummit is showing off her new sports jacket. Or it may be a new-fangled tea cart . . . or a swell picture of Junior at $2.85 the dozen. We don't know for sure because the photographer didn't tell us and the lady has her shoulder in the way. But Mrs. Crummit is doubly pleased. There's not the hint of a bothered budget to trouble her. Something in her expression says she found it in the advertising pages of the Daily Freeman.

Did she save money? Of course! But that's nothing new for a veteran ad-shopper like Mary Crummit. She has saved more than her allowance. Time, shoe-leather and the disposition her husband's forever bragging about. Stole a march on her neighbors, too. (Not all of them - there are quite a few Freeman ad-readers on the Crummit's street!)

HELPING THE ADVERTISERS MAKE NEWS!

You don't have to tell us that So-and-So's Sale of Dresses is news! The ad came in late but it's not going to miss the timest part of an edition in spite of the fact that we had to make the layout and pick him out some swell illustrations from our Meyer Both ad service files. The fass our printers make about that ad would turn the city desk green with eavy! Is she plated up and on the press? Right. Bill! Start 'em rolling!

CENTRAL 2200

It's hard to cry about a lost dog when you hear Miss Robinson's cheerful voice at the other end of the wire. But then she can afford to smile. She knows your Daily Freeman Want Ad will find Frisker for you before you're a day clder. Want to hire a maid, sell a car, swap a fiddle? Remember the Daily Freeman will do it - and with fewer words.

How Ovaltine Helps to Bring SOUND SLEEP QUICKLY New Energy—New Vitality Next Day

OVALTINE is a delicious pure food concentrate approved by thousands of physicians and used in 54 different countries today. When taken as a hot drink at bedtime it usually induces sound sleep in a surprisingly short time.

By this method you avoid the use of drugs. And when you awaken in the morning you feel refreshed-clear-eyed, slert-with your nerves calm and mind clear-just. the way you should feel after a perfect night's sleep. Ovaltine is remarkably easy to digest, and because of its unusual food values, it assists nature in rebuilding nerve, brain, and body tissue while you sleep, increases energy

So outstanding are the results accredited to Ovaltine that, during the World War, it was used as a standard ration for invalid, nerve-shattered soldiers. Thousands of people, men and women, use it regularly to restore vitality when fatigued. And it is also highly recommended by physicians for nervous, under-nourished children-and as a strengthening food for nursing mothers, convalescents, and the aged.

Get a can of Ovaltine at any drug or grocery store today. Or mail the coupon at the right for a trial supply.
